Volvo Ocean Race | Recruting Season!

At The Gate

October 15, 2009

"This hello comes from the Gibraltar Straights on a beautiful sunny morning. We left Portimao at midday yesterday (Wednesday) after having to stop to sit out some weather, swap crew and celebrate my 31st birthday.

We had a great run from Gosport to Portimao but due to time restrictions, Capey and Mike had to fly out to compete in the Middle Sea Race in Malta. I think Capey got to go home to his family for about 12 hours before heading off to the next job, navigating on Karl Kwoks Beaugust. Mike is off to rejoin Telefonica Black which has been chartered to do the race. We did the ring around and were delighted to find Tom Gall, who was one of our very handy sail makers during the Volvo Race, and his mate Dan. These two were able and willing to not only help with the rest of the delivery but also able to stay on and help us pack the boat up for winter storage in Alicante. A big bonus!!"

WINDS APPROACHING

From our last weather update they have a pretty nasty 50 knot mistral to deal with on Sunday as they get a little further east....
